

Wisconsin Greater Prairie Chicken Survey

A count of male greater prairie chickens is conducted annually on spring booming grounds throughout the remaining range in Wisconsin. This survey provides an index, not only to population size, but to grassland habitat quality and quantity and to the effectiveness of ongoing habitat management. Grassland management has been ongoing in Wisconsin since the mid-1950's and has prevented extirpation from Wisconsin of this "state threatened" grassland species.

